

“FAITH TOWARD GOD”

Michael Venya

A. Text(s):

Hebrews 6:1-2; Mark 11:22; John 14:6; Acts 20:20-21

B. Introduction:

In Hebrews 6:1-2, exercising “Faith toward God” is the second thing that we are commanded to do, after choosing to stop sin, or, choosing to exercise “Repentance from dead works”, in order to begin living according to “the doctrine of Christ”. Though we choose to repent and stop all sin in the present, we must have faith in God, through having faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God sent by God to live life without sin and offer Himself on the cross as the only Acceptable Sacrifice to God for our sins, in order to be forgiven and cleansed for the sins that we committed in the past, and to be justified, or, declared morally innocent as if we had never sinned, in the present (and future, if we choose to keep Biblical faith in Christ by choosing to live in loving sin-free obedience to and in Christ). This essential Biblical doctrine of Christ will now be examined.

C. Definitions:

1. “Faith” is the Greek word “pistis”, #4102 in Strong’s Concordance. It is derived from the word “peitho”, #3982, which means “to convince (by argument true or false)”; by analogy “to pacify” or conciliate (by other fair means)”; reflexively or passively “to assent (to evidence or authority)”, “to rely (by inward certainty)”:- “agree”, “assure”, “believe”, “have confidence”, “be (wax) confident”, “make friend”, “obey”, “persuade”, “trust”, “yield”. “Pistis” is defined as “persuasion” i.e. “credence”; “moral conviction (of religious truth or the truthfulness of God or a religious teacher)”, especially “reliance upon Christ for salvation”; abstractly “constancy in such profession”; by extension, “the system of religious (Gospel) truth itself”:- “assurance”, “belief”, “believe”, “faith”, “fidelity”.
2. “Toward” is the Greek word “epi”, #1909. It is a preposition meaning “superimposition (of time, place, order, etc...)” as a relation of “distribution” [with the general] i.e. “over, upon”, etc... of “rest” (with the dative) “at on,” etc...; of “direction” (with the accusative) “toward, upon, etc...”
3. “God” is the Greek word “theos”, #2316. It means “a deity”, especially “the Supreme Divinity”; figuratively “a magistrate”; by Hebrew “very”.

*Conclusion: Based on the definitions above, “faith toward God” literally means exercising “persuasion, moral conviction of religious truth and the truthfulness of God, and reliance upon Christ for salvation” “at, on, in the direction of” “the Supreme Deity”. In other words “faith toward God” means “to completely rely on and be persuaded by God, through Christ, for salvation and all other temporal and eternal matters.

D. The “who, what, when, where, why, how” of “faith toward God”:

1. “Who is to have faith?”

- a. Romans 12:3: “Every person does, and is to, have faith, because God has dealt to every person the measure of faith”
- b. Romans 1:5, 16:26: “All nations and all people are to be obedient to the faith”
- c. Romans 3:3: God has faith
- d. Romans 3:22; Galatians 2:16; James 2:1; Revelations 2:13, 14:12 (all with Hebrews 11:6): The Lord Jesus Christ has faith

2. “Who is one to have faith in?”

- a. Mark 11:22; Colossians 2:12; 1 Thessalonians 1:8; Hebrews 6:1; 1 Peter 1:21: God
- b. Acts 3:16, 20:21, 24:24, 26:18; Romans 3:25; Galatians 3:26; Ephesians 1:15-17; Colossians 1:4-5, 2:5-6; 2 Timothy 3:15: The Lord Jesus Christ

3. “What is faith?”

- a. (Hebrews 11:1)“Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen”
 1. “Substance” is the Greek word “hupostasis”, #5287 in Strong’s Concordance. It means “a setting under (support)” i.e. (figuratively) concretely “essence” or abstractly “assurance”:- “confidence, confident, person, substance”
 2. “Things” is the Greek word “pragma”, #4229 in Strong’s Concordance, meaning “a deed”, by implication “an affair”, by extension, an “object (material)” :-“business, matter, thing, work”

3. "Hoped" is the Greek word "elpizo", #1679 in Strong's Concordance. It means "to expect" or "confide"
4. "Evidence" is the Greek word "elegchos", #1650 in Strong's Concordance. It means "proof" or "conviction"
5. "Seen" is the Greek word "blepo", #991 in Strong's Concordance. It means "to look at"

*Conclusion:

"Faith" or "persuasion" is "the setting under"/"support"/"Person"/"assurance" of "deeds"/"works" "expected", the "proof" of "deeds" not yet "looked at"

*Point of emphasis:

"Faith"/"persuasion" is the "essence"/"assurance" of works ("deeds") hoped for, the proof of works not seen. Based on the above definitions and conclusion, Hebrews 11:1 tells us the following:

"True Biblical faith is the proof that works will follow. Without works, therefore, faith is dead! In other words, faith or belief in God and Christ, without complete loving obedience to God and Christ, is dead. Based on this, true Biblical faith and true Biblical works are synonymous- neither will enable one to receive salvation without the other! (James 2:18-26; John 6:28-29).

b. (Galatians 5:22-23) "Faith is a fruit of the Holy Spirit"

"Fruit" is the Greek word "karpos" #2580 in Strong's Concordance. It means "fruit as plucked". Based on this, if the Holy Spirit is Biblically in your life, the fruit of "faith", or "persuasion" will be one that will always be growing in your life and which will be able to be plucked from the tree of your life for use by others, yourself, and even God. If the Holy Spirit is Biblically in your life, producing the fruit of faith in Christ by His Presence, through your loving obedience to Him, nobody, and nothing, will be able to shake the fruit of faith from off of the Vine of Christ which the Holy Spirit has planted in the garden of your heart.

c. (2 Corinthians 4:13) "Faith is a Spirit"

"Spirit" is the Greek word "pneuma", #4151 in Strong's Concordance. It means "a current of air" i.e. "breath (blast)" or "a breeze", by analogy or figuratively "a spirit" i.e. "(human) the rational soul" (by implication) "vital principle, mental disposition", etc... or (superhuman) "an angel, demon" or (divine) "God, Christ's Spirit, the Holy Spirit". Because the writer of 2 Corinthians, the Apostle Paul, speaks of the death and resurrection of the Lord Jesus in 2 Corinthians 4:10-12, both of which were brought about by the Holy Spirit, "breath, a breeze, the rational soul, vital principle, mental disposition, angel, demon" could not be the appropriate definitions for the phrase "the Spirit of faith". Paul's reference to "the dying of the Lord Jesus" and "the life of Jesus" in 2 Corinthians 4:10-12 echoes his words in Romans 8:10-11: "and if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. But if the Spirit of Him that raised up Christ from the dead dwell in you, He that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by His Spirit that dwelleth in you." Because this passage of scripture clearly states that God the Father raised the Lord Jesus Christ from the dead by "the Holy Spirit", it must be concluded that "the same Spirit of faith" that makes it possible so that "death worketh in us, but life in you" in the same way that death worked in Christ but life eternal works in us, is the Holy Spirit. He, is the "persuasion (John 16:7-11: "He reproveth or convinces the world of sin, righteousness, and judgment"), assurance (Romans 8:16: "He beareth witness with our Spirit that we are the children of God"), moral conviction (John 16:7-11: "He reproveth or convicts the world of sin, righteousness and judgment") that comes into your life when you Biblically turn from sin and surrender your life, completely, to only living to love and obey the Lord Jesus Christ.

d. Romans 3:27: "Faith is a law":

"Law" is the Greek word "nomos", #3551 in Strong's Concordance, from a primary word "nemo" ("to parcel out", especially "food" or grazing" to animals). It means "law" (through the idea of prescriptive "usage"), generally ("regulation"), specifically (of Moses [including the volume]; also of the Gospel), or figuratively (a "principle"). From this we see that "faith/persuasion/the Holy Spirit" in one's life works according to law/regulation/principle. The law of faith is that if one chooses to place Biblical faith/persuasion in the Lord Jesus Christ and the power of the Blood that He shed while dying on the cross to cleanse one from past sins, one can be "justified" or "rendered and regarded innocent of one's sins, and receive "redemption" or "ransom in full for, riddance of, and salvation from, sin, as long as one chooses to live or abide in Christ by loving Him enough to obey Him and live free of sin.

4. Where does faith reside?

- a. Acts 15:9; 1 Corinthians 13:13 with Romans 5:5: Faith is to reside in one's heart (believing God's Word)
- b. Luke 17:6; Romans 10:6,8: Faith is to reside in, and be released through, one's mouth (speaking God's Word)
- c. Romans 10:17: Faith is to be received through one's ears (hearing God's Word)
- d. 1 Timothy 1:19, 3:9: Faith is to reside in one's pure and good conscience (obeying God's Word)
- e. Habakkuk 2:4; Romans 1:17; 2 Corinthians 5:7; Galatians 3:11; Hebrews 10:38: Faith is to live through one's life (living by God's Word)

5. When is one to have faith?

- a. Hebrews 11:1; Mark 11:22: One is to have faith in the present tense

6. Why is one to have faith?

- a. Romans 12:3: Because God dealt to every man the measure of faith for the purpose of every man having faith in Him through Christ
- b. Revelation 4:11; Hebrews 11:6: Because all people were created to give God pleasure and without faith it is impossible for people to give God pleasure
- c. 1 Timothy 2:3-4; Ephesians 2:8; Luke 7:47-50, 18:39-43; 2 Timothy 3:15; Galatians 5:6; John 14:15: Because it is God's Will for all to be saved from sin and salvation only comes by grace through faith which works by love which is expressed through obedience
- d. Romans 14:23: Because whatever is not of faith is sin

7. "How is one to have faith?"

Romans 12:3; Galatians 2:20; Philippians 2:5-8; Deuteronomy 32:20; Mark 4:40; Matthew 6:30, 14:31, 16:8; 1 Timothy 1:19-20; James 2:20; Galatians 5:6; John 14:15; Romans 10:17; Luke 17:5-6; Jude 20; James 2:18; John 6:28-29; Romans 10:6, 8-10, 13; Philippians 2:12-13; Matthew 24:12-13: In Romans 12:3 it is stated that God has dealt to every man "the" measure of faith. The word "the" tells us that there exists only one measure of faith: "the faith of the Son of God" which Paul refers to in Galatians 2:20. "Measure" is the Greek word "metron", #3358 in Strong's

Concordance. It means “a measure” (“metre”) literally or figuratively; by implication a limited “portion (degree)”. Based on this, every person, including the Lord Jesus Christ “Who was made in the likeness of men” (Philippians 2:5-7), has been given by God an equal “portion” or “degree” of faith. Each person has also been given by God a free will to choose to increase the faith that they have been given, or, either purposely or accidentally, cause it to decrease.

Deuteronomy 32:15-20 says that one decreases their God-given faith down to nothing by forsaking, lightly esteeming, placing things before, being unmindful of, and sacrificing to devils instead of to, God. Mark 4:40 declares that choosing to be fearful causes one to have “no faith”. Matthew 6:30 states that not trusting God to supply ones needs causes one to have “little faith”. Matthew 14:31 shows that doubting God causes one to have “little faith”. Matthew 16:5-11 demonstrates that having a carnal or non-Biblical interpretation of Scripture and therefore not understanding God’s Word also causes one to have “little faith”. 1 Timothy 1:19-20 states that blaspheming God causes one’s faith to be shipwrecked or destroyed. James 2:20, Galatians 5:6 and John 14:15 tell us that not choosing to lovingly obey Christ’s commandments causes one’s faith to die.

On the other hand, Romans 10:17 says that faith comes to and increases in one’s life by hearing and obeying God’s Word. Luke 17:5-6 states that faith is increased by speaking God’s Word aloud. Jude 20 says that one’s life and one’s faith is built by one praying in the Holy Ghost. James 2:18; John 6:28-29; Romans 10:6, 8-10, 13; Galatians 5:6; John 14:15; Philippians 2:12-13; Matthew 24:12-13; Hebrews 5:9, conclude that true Biblical faith is expressed toward God through the Lord Jesus Christ for salvation by the biblical works of believing in Christ Whom God sent to die and be raised from the dead as an acceptable offering and sacrifice for mankind’s sin, confessing aloud or making a verbal covenant to forsake sin and love, obey, serve, and follow Christ as one’s Lord, continue in salvation by loving Christ through keeping His Commandments, and working out one’s salvation with fear and trembling until the end of one’s life, realizing that Christ is the Author of salvation only for those who choose to completely obey Him.

E. Scriptures concerning faith toward God through Christ:

1. Deuteronomy 32:15-20: Faith toward God through Christ is killed by sin (Because Romans 14:23 says “Whatever is not of faith is sin” it follows, therefore, through contra-positive logic, that whatever is not of sin is faith. When one is in sin one is not in faith and therefore not in the position to receive the grace of God that saves one from sin through faith)

2. Habakkuk 2:4; Romans 1:17; Galatians 3:11; Hebrews 10:38: Faith toward God through Christ is what the just live by (Based on this, if one is not living by faith which works by love expressed through obedience, one is not justified by Christ from sin)

85. Galatians 3:7: Faith toward God through Christ enables one to be the child of Abraham in the sense of also believing God and having it accounted for righteousness
86. Galatians 3:7: Faith toward God through Christ enables one to be blessed with faithful Abraham
87. Galatians 3:11-14: Faith toward God through Christ is:
 - a. What one who desires to be declared and rendered innocent of the sins that one has committed, must live by
 - b. The only thing that can declare and render one innocent of the sins that one has committed. In order to be innocent of sin under God's Law one must never break God's Law, but all have broken God's Law except God's Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, the only One to live innocent of sin. Therefore, because all are guilty of sin, and Christ alone is innocent of sin, the only way that one can be declared and rendered innocent of sin is to simply believe, trust, be persuaded, "sinless" that Christ lived innocent of sin, offered Himself through His death on the cross as the only acceptable Offering to God for one's sins, was buried, was raised from the dead three days later by God, having cleansed sin by His shed Blood, and ascended to the right Hand of God the Father in Heaven, where He ever lives, making intercession that one will choose to stop sinning, believe in and surrender one's life to Him, and commit to abiding or living in Him, Biblically, by loving Him enough to keep His Commandments.

- c. The only thing that enables one to be redeemed from the curse, or punishment, of the Law, for one's sins, by Christ, Who suffered the curse, or punishment, for one, by suffering and dying on the cross as a Substitute and Sacrifice for one's sins
- d. The only thing that enables one to receive the promise of being filled with the Holy ("Sin-less") Spirit (by one being declared and rendered by God "sinless" and "innocent" of sin through Christ's sacrifice for one's sin on the cross)

88. Galatians 3:22-23 Faith toward God through Christ enables one who Biblically believes and abides in Christ to receive the promise of salvation from sin and being filled with the Holy (Sinless) Spirit. Before Christ came and faith in Him and His atoning work on the cross was possible, all had walked on, fallen through, sunk under, the paper-thin ice sheet of God's Law covering the sea of sin. Drowning, beneath sin's pummeling, tumultuous swells, shut up under layer upon ice-layer of Law, it was only then that one saw the necessity of one believing in, calling upon, forever following, and living in complete obedience to, the only One Who traversed the ice without slipping into sin, the Only One Who could direct one to Himself and His sinless shore of Salvation, the Lord Jesus Christ

89. Galatians 3:24-25: Faith toward God through Christ enables one to be rendered and declared innocent of sin, after one has had the schoolmaster of God's Law show one one's failing grade in the class of life shortly before the final examination of Judgment Day and the necessity of one submitting to the only Student with a 100% A+ grade, the Lord Jesus Christ (Who at the same time is both the Creator of the course and the Instructor who will Judge the Final Examination of Judgment Day). Once one has chosen to believe in, submit to, and perform error-free for, the A+ student, one is no longer under the schoolmaster. Similarly, once one has chosen to believe in, submit to, and abide Biblically sin-free, in Christ, one is no longer under the schoolmaster of God's Law

Ephesians 6:10-16: Faith toward God through Christ, by hearing, obeying, and preaching God's Word, is to be used as a shield, by Jew and Gentile Biblical believers to withstand the "chief in order, time, place, rank", "superhuman force and ability", "world rulers (the epithet ascribed to satan) and world leaders" "of sin in this world" and "demonic plots and sins" in "places above the sky" trying to continue their rule over the formerly unsaved Gentiles by trying to stop their unification with the Jewish believers in Christ which would break the demonic rule over the Gentiles (who comprised the majority of the world's population at that time)

This liberation from the sin of vanity is what Paul was saying that the women were to learn about, from the men that had put away “wrath and doubting” (1 Timothy 2:8) and were saved and free from sin as God willed (1 Timothy 2:4) in silence (desistance from bustle [materialistic] and language [vain, materialistic speech]) with all subjection (subordination [obedience]), not usurping authority (dominating, acting of oneself) over the sin-free man who was teaching her, his wife, to obey God’s Will (as Eve did to Adam and, being enticed by the desirable appearance of the forbidden fruit, committed the sin of covetousness) and live free from sin in Christ (as he had, by putting away wrath and doubting –common temptations for men) by putting away the female temptation to pay more attention to physical appearance and dress than to spiritual appearance with their “modest apparel” of “good works”; this verse has nothing to do with women learning, teaching, or functioning as a pastor or five-fold minister, in church, as “church” or the subjects of corporate worship, fellowship, or instruction, as pertaining to women, were not mentioned in the chapter

131. 1 Timothy 3:9: Faith toward God through Christ, and the “mystery” (“secret”) of it (Christ, as God in the flesh, reconciling both man [Jews and Gentiles] to God and man [Jews] to man [Gentiles] through His death on the cross, burial, and resurrection), is to be held in a pure conscience
132. 1 Timothy 3:13: Faith toward God through Christ is that which one can have great boldness in, if one lives blamelessly and runs household Biblically
133. 1 Timothy 4:1: Faith toward God through Christ will be departed from by some who will give heed to seducing (“imposter, misleader”) spirits and doctrines (“instruction”) of devils (1 John 2:18-27 and 2 Timothy 3:15 say that “seducing”/“imposter”/“misleader” demons mislead people by speaking through teachers (“them that seduce you”, “evil men and seducers”) that teach what contradicts the Word of God

Based on the above definitions and conclusion, we understand the following: “True Biblical faith is the proof that works will follow. Without works, therefore, faith is dead! In other words, faith or belief in God and Christ, without complete loving obedience to God and Christ, is dead.
